ABOUT THE BLOG

Several years ago I fell in love with a pair of shoes called Tiefs. I thought it would be fun to dedicate an entire Instagram page to posting pics of these comfy, beautiful flats and Tiefslove was created. Over the last few years my followers have grown to over 3.4K. My followers love that I not only share my shoe obsession, but that I also share other fun, unique finds and tips.

T's Loves blog, launched in 2017, is an extension and elaboration of Tiefslove, and a way for me to share all the things that I love in a more detailed medium with all of my followers. Topics cover fashion, food, travel, DIY, Disney and general lifestyle posts.

My Followers are Your Consumers!

T's Loves demographic are women aged 25-55, of which the majority are located in the United States. My followers on Instagram interact at a 3-5% engagement rate, with most posts averaging 65-100 likes and 7-20 comments.
